

Associate in Arts in English Literature

Program Outcomes

Upon completion of this degree, students will have been exposed to and demonstrated a knowledge of major and minor authors and literary texts from the United States, Europe, and abroad. They will hone their reading and writing skills in analysis, interpretation, and research. Lastly, they will develop a greater appreciation for literature and the role it plays in shaping and reflecting culture.

Employment Opportunities or Additional Educational Options

With this degree, students can prepare to transfer to a four-year institution to continue their pursuit of a bachelor's degree in literature or related fields. Please contact your advisor frequently to utilize your course electives in this program wisely.

Additional Notes About the A.A. in English Literature Program

- A prerequisite course may be needed prior to enrollment in some courses within this program. Specific prerequisite requirements are listed in the Course Description section in the Course Catalog. A summary of the prerequisites are listed below in the Example Course Sequence.
- This program as outlined meets MTA requirements.
- The program shown on the previous page does not provide a student with all 60 credits needed to earn a degree. Students will need to take additional courses to reach 60 total credits. Many more credits can be taken in the areas of communications, English, literature, and writing.
- Courses taken out of sequence may delay a student's ability to complete the program in a timely manner. Please consult your advisor regularly.
- Each student should submit a graduation application at least one full semester before he/she plans to graduate.
- This program is subject to change. Students should consult with their advisor for program updates.
